NARRATIVE:

Torres has an extensive adult criminal history with her first conviction at age 24. Her convictions include felon in possession of a firearm, battery, theft, burglary, petty theft/prior, under the influence of a controlled substance, and possession of controlled substance. She has served multiple state prison terms the longest a two (2) year term for theft w/prior. Torres was released from state prison to the supervision of the Los Angeles County Probation Department on January 21st, 2014. Under the Governor's Public Safety Realignment Act of 2011, better known as Assembly Bill 109 (AB 109) the responsibility of lower-level offenders was shifted from the State to Los Angeles County. She subsequently failed to report to her probation officer and an arrest warrant was issued in February 2014 after she absconded from post release community supervision (PRCS). Torres qualified to be released to the supervision of probation, under AB 109, because her current commitment offense for the charge of felon in possession of a firearm is defined as non-serious and non-violent under the California penal code. Her prior criminal history and current failure to comply with the terms of release make her a most wanted. If you know her whereabouts please contact...
